DIAMOND POEM This diamond poem shows how one student felt about a school year. The poem has seven lines and sixteen words. The top part of the poem describes the beginning of the year, and the bottom describes the end of it. Write your own diamond poem about your school year.

One Student's Year

September
nervous, excited
hoping, preparing, starting, friendships, teams, projects, bells, working, practicing, trying,
confident, free
June!
